Hon'ble B.S. Verma, J.

Heard Sri Umesh Singh Kalakoti learned counsel for the applicant.

The petitioner has filed this contempt petition against the respondents for non-compliance of the Court order dated 3-3-2006 passed by this Court in Writ Petition No. 1335 of 2005 (S/S).

The order was passed on 3-3-2006 by this Court to consider the case of the petitioner for appointment under Dyeing in Harness Rules and further release all the dues in her favour within a period of two months from the date of presentation of the certified copy of the order.

The representation of the petitioner has been rejected by the Divisional Forest Officer vide order dated 24-5-2006 on the ground that there is no provisions in the Dyeing in Harness Rules to appoint the heirs of daily wager.

The representation of the petitioner has been considered if the petitioner is aggrieved she may file the fresh writ petition against the order passed by the Divisional Forest Officer for redressal her grievance.

In view of the above facts, the contempt petition is dismissed in limine.
